Goals

- Seeking to foster a career within the public service.
- Wants to network and make connections.
- Aims to differentiate himself from other public servants.

Frustrations

- Doesn't like signing up for multiple platforms.
- Government hiring can take a long time.
- Due to the lack of members on GC Collab/Connex, he has difficulty finding people to connect with.

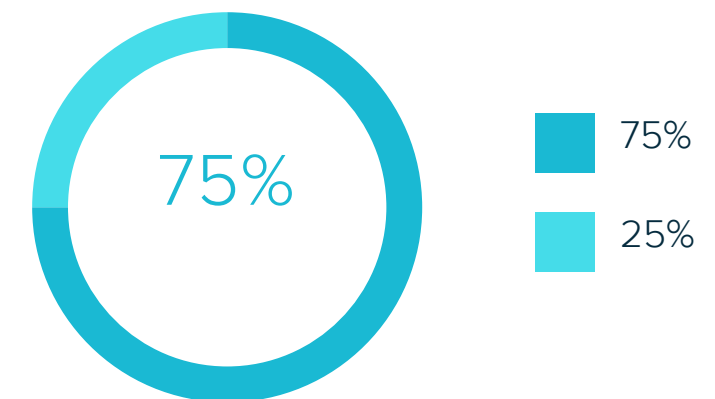

Bio

Jake moved to Ottawa to foster a career in government after completing his Bachelor of Arts from the University of Calgary. Upon moving to Ottawa, Jake realized he would need additional education to set him apart from other applicants to the public service, and enrolled in a graduate diploma program at Algonquin College.

Jake is participating in a student internship with the Government of Canada and is using his GC Collab/Connex profile to network with other public servants and secure a more long term job.
